Warriors Triumph Over Alumni: Will Play Cubs

El Camino college, victorious in its grid encounter against the Alumni Saturday by a 20-13 score, will be gunning for victory number two when it clashes helmets with the Cubs from Los Angeles City College.

The pigskin tussle will be played on the LACC turf Friday night at eight. This will be the first time the two colleges have met on the gridiron.

Norm Verry, head football coach of the El Camino Warriors is expected to put his stalwarts through some rugged practice sessions for the coming battle with a strong emphasis on pass defense.

It was this weakness in the backfield and lack of a hard driving line that had the coaching staff upset in the alumni game.

Quarterback Billy Crawford making his second appearance against the varsity, completed two touchdowns, passes and never seemed in danger of getting off his passes.

Bright spot in the game, though, was the quarterbacking of the blue and grey squad. Pre-season outlook indicated that the Warriors were in trouble after the loss of Stan Becker and Joe Shepheard, a fourth stringer, returning.

The Warriors, who usually are noted for their outstanding quarterbacks, seem to have come up with two more fine field generals in Jerry Nicholson and Jerry Lindsey, however. Both played an outstanding game, with Lindsey showing poise moving the Warriors down field for the first Camino score and Nicholson running a 60 yard punt return in the closing minutes of the fourth quarter for the deciding marker.

Halfback Bob Dehlinger and Fullback Don Kulpa looked good in the backfield as both scored touchdowns with Kulpa blasting over from the one-yard line and Dehlinger sweeping right end twelve yards for his.

Kulpa, who gained 245 yards on 41 attempts last year, should be a big threat offensively again this year.

The front line looked weak in spots but not at right guard, which was held down by Pat Reagan. Alumni Tom Johnston, who made All-Metro in '53 commented at half time while getting his arm bandaged, "That guy sure is rough."

As the Alumni game was the squad's first test, the coaching staff hopes to have most of the weak spots ironed out for the LACC contest.

The Alumni handed the Warriors their sole defeat prior to the Junior Rose Bowl game last season.
